

CLAIMING HERMIT WIDOW'S ESTATE

While Mrs. Mary Oliver Is Being Buried in Woodlawn Cemetery Her Grandson Applies for Letters of Administration.

While Mrs. Mary Oliver, Harlem's hermit widow, was being buried to-day in Woodlawn Cemetery her grandson, Miller Campbell, made application in the Surrogate's Court for letters of administration on her estate. Public Administrator Hoes, satisfied that Campbell represents Mrs. Oliver's heirs, will make no objection, but it is likely a protest may come from young James Alderice, son of the superannuated minister, who was found dying outside Mrs. Oliver's kitchen door while Mrs. Oliver lay dead inside. Young Alderice is a lawyer, with offices at No. 304 Broadway, and it develops that it was he and not his father who attended to Mrs. Oliver's business.

The House Is Locked.

If Mrs. Oliver made a will, Campbell thinks Alderice would have it, but Mrs. Oliver's heirs have not been able to get in communication with Alderice since the death of his father and Mrs. Oliver. Young Alderice said his sister have locked the house at No. 294 Second avenue, and at his office there is a notice that he will be absent for a week on account of a death in the family. The directory gives No. 335 East One Hundred and Eighteenth street as young Alderice's home address, but there is no such number.

No Trace of Will.

Mr. Campbell says he has searched his grandmother's papers, but could find no trace of a will, of bank-books or of her having a safe deposit box for the care of her securities. He believes, however, that a will is in existence and makes no secret of the fact that when it is produced he anticipates it will contain an unpleasant surprise for Mrs. Oliver's heirs.

Friends of Mrs. Oliver's daughters say that they made repeated efforts to bring about a reconciliation with their mother, but that their efforts were defeated through the influence of Mr. Alderice. Nephew Stevens, a carpenter and a neighbor of Mrs. Oliver, knew her father, John York, who was known in Harlem forty years ago as "Pop" York. When he died he left an estate of $125,000, which was divided equally between Mrs. Oliver and her daughter, Mrs. Campbell. The latter had three daughters, two of whom are living. They are Mrs. Jacobson, of No. 24 West One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, and Mrs. Stevenson, residing in Brooklyn. The third daughter died, but left a son. There is also a nephew living, named York.

Young Alderice's Interest.

Stevens also claims that the elder Alderice told him not long ago that the flatness in East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, which Mrs. Oliver is said to have once owned, belonged to young Alderice. Stevens says that the three lots in East One Hundred and Seventeenth street, near Second avenue, in which Mrs. Oliver had an interest, were disposed of under foreclosure sale about a month ago. The real estate reports have no record of such sale.

The two iron-bound chests which the police have guarded carefully since Mrs. Oliver's death will not be opened under instructions from the Public Administrator until an executor qualifies or is appointed by the Surrogate. The body of James Alderice is at Morris's undertaking establishment, but no arrangements for the funeral have been made.

WIRELESS DOTS AND DASHES IN JERRY GOAT'S STOMACH

Mascot of the Alabama Does High and Lofly Tumbling When He Swallows Live Wire.

Jerry Goat, the bearded mascot of the battleship Alabama, has gone up against the Marconi wireless telegraph system and has met defeat.

Jerry's voracious appetite is the cause of his trouble. Electricians have been at work for several days equipping the battleship with wireless telegraph apparatus. Part of the apparatus consists of a series of wire loops hanging from a topmast. Jerry ran against one of these loops and began to devour it in an absent-minded way.

Just as he had it about half down experts at the Sands street entrance of the New York Navy Yard began trying to make connections with the water front. Jerry's internal apparatus was disorganized by the dots and dashes and blue sparks flew from his stub tail and his whiskers.

"Blast my tarry tonight! Double ous and goah hang!" growled Jerry. "What am I up against?"

He danced a Highland fling and did a ground and lofty tumbling act which greatly amused the old sea dogs who were watching him, but Jerry saw no cause for amusement. One of the sailors finally pulled the wire loop out of his throat and Jerry bleated his thanks.

TERM IN SING SING FOR SUMMERFIELD

Convicted Stock Swindler Was the Best Dressed Man in Court-Room When Justice Davis Imposed Sentence.

"Larry" Summerfield, originator and backer of the Horsehoe Copper Mining Company stock swindle, was to-day sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for a term of not less than two years and six months nor more than six years and seven months by Justice Vernon, M. Davis in the Criminal branch of the Supreme Court.

Summerfield, who was convicted Monday of grand larceny in the first degree, was the best dressed man in the court-room when arraigned for sentence this morning.

He looked as though he had come from the hands of a valet rather than from a Tombs cell. Although arrested scores of times on various charges, Summerfield never before was convicted of crime. He has an international notoriety, having been arrested in numerous cities on the two hemispheres. He is married.

Lawyers Henry J. Goldsmith and Max D. Stear, Summerfield's counsel, did everything in their power to prevent Summerfield from going to Sing Sing. When Justice Davis had refused to grant a new trial or set aside the verdict of the jury the lawyers made haste to go to a Supreme Court Justice in Brooklyn to ask for a stay. In case they are successful Summerfield can be released on bail.

Previous to receiving sentence, Summerfield through his counsel entered a plea of not guilty to the indictment filed against him last Monday, alleging that he and others fraudulently obtained $20,000 from Charles F. Buchanan, the tobaccoist, in a stock transaction nearly two years ago.

SELF-BURYING PLANT.

"A plant that is its own gardener, you would think, an impossibility," said a peanut dealer. "In the peanut, though, we have just such a plant—a plant, as it were, with a spade. The peanut grows in the air and sun, but when the flowers fall off and the pods appear it is necessary for these pods to mature under ground, and therefore, the plant buries them."

"It buries them with a movement of the stalk, a downward bend that pushes the pods down into the soil. This is a strange thing to see; it makes a peanut patch well worth a visit. Go to one of these patches at the season when the flowers are falling and if you are patient you may have the luck to catch a plant in the very act of burying its pods."—Philadelphia Record.

LAYS HIS ILL-LUCK TO BIG BLACK CAT

Negro Accused of Attacking Miss Imrie, of Bronxville, As-sets His Arrest Is Due to a Feline Hoodoo.

(Special to The Evening World.)

MOINT VERNON, Nov. 12.—Protesting his innocence and declaring that he will establish an alibi, Ned Green, called "the Berry Wall of Mount Vernon" because he has always been the smartest dressed negro in town, spent the night in a cell at Police Headquarters.

Pearing that some of the friends of Miss Imrie, the stenographer for ex-Senator Isaac N. Miller, who accuses Green of attacking her at Bronxville, might attempt to lynch Green, the authorities were afraid to lock him up in the dingy little jail at Bronxville and so kept him in the cell at Judge Thatcher's house.

Miss Imrie reiterates her statement that she is positive that Green is the man who attacked her by the throat and tried to force her through the hedge near the Bronxville church the night before election.

She fought the man with her hat pin and tried to scratch his face, pierce his nose and then her assailant ran away. A vigilance committee comprising residents of Bronxville refused the woods for several days, but could get no trace of the negro.

A hearing was given Green in the parlour of Chief of Police Van Buren's home, and Judge Thatcher, of Bronxville, today fixed Green's bail at $2,000 pending the examination to-morrow.

Senator Miller appeared before the Judge and said that in behalf of the District Attorney he would prosecute Green. Stephen J. Sullivan, counsel for Green, declared that the prisoner would prove a clear alibi.

"Why do you know," said Mr. Sullivan, "we have fifty witnesses to prove where Green was on the night of the alleged assault. In the first place, Green was interviewed by the Republican candidate for Sheriff at Portchester at 5 o'clock on that night. It took him nearly an hour and a half to reach here. At 7:05 P. M. he was talking to Mayor Flisno, and at 7:30 until 9 he was at a Republican meeting, as we shall prove by Alderman Maxon."

Green says all his ill luck is due to a black cat. "On the night before I was arrested," said he, "a black cat ran in front of me twice. I knew I was in for something when I had a dip on Orthodox in the first race yesterday and would have made $100 if I had not been pinched." On a Huckleberry trolley car that he saw a man answering Green's description standing by the Bronxville Church, and he will identify him positively in court.

MUNYON'S VICTORY!

All New York Talking of His New Remedy,

PAW-PAW

Druggists Say They Have Never Known Such a Quick and Great Demand.

HUNDREDS TESTIFY To Receiving Great Help from the Sample Bottles.

DYSPEPSIA Sufferers are Relieved at Once and Quickly Cured.

SLEEPLESSNESS And Nervousness Disappear When This Wonderful Vegetable Pepsin is Used.

Druggists report that never in the history of medicine has there been such an instant and great demand for a new remedy as for Munyon's Paw-Paw. The 20,000 sample bottles given away from the offices of the American and Journal went into the hands of the most discriminating people of this city. Ministers, teachers, merchants and mechanics, as well as city and country people, have all been benefited by this wonderful vegetable pepsin. Only words of praise have been heard for it from the most fastidious. Many people who received a free sample bottle say they began to feel better after taking it. It is not only acts as a tonic, but gives the stomach an abiding strength to digest everything that is put into it. People who have been unable to retain any solids on their stomachs now declare that they can eat a hearty meal without any discomfort. The most marvellous effect of this Paw-Paw remedy is its wonderful curative effects upon the nerves. It seems to soothe, calm and strengthen them.

It soothes the Nerves. It rests the Nerves. It feeds the Nerves. It enables one to sleep. It is Nature's own remedy. Prof. Munyon says that his Paw-Paw remedy relieves the nerves of all irritation and friction. It isn't a narcotic to put them to sleep, but a remedy that will give them a lasting strength.

"I don't believe," says Prof. Munyon, "that a better remedy for the blood and liver was ever compounded. I have seen sluggish livers that had refused to act under the usual treatments respond in a most marvellous way by the use of my Paw-Paw."

Munyon's Paw-Paw seems to digest everything it touches, hence it makes good, rich blood, which in turn strengthens and vitalizes the whole Nervous system.

Prof. Munyon says Paw-Paw will make an old stomach almost as good as new. He says:

"I want all persons who suffer with dyspepsia or nervous trouble to cast away all other remedies and give my Paw-Paw a fair trial. I want every weak and debilitated person to get a bottle of my Paw-Paw at once and take it according to directions.

"I know it will make old folks feel young and weak folks feel strong. I want every person who feels in need of a tonic to drop the use of alcoholic drinks of all kinds and take my Paw-Paw in its place. People don't crave for stimulants when the stomach and nerves are in a healthy condition. My Paw-Paw gives exhilaration without intoxication. Alcoholic stimulants lift, but let you fall.

Paw-Paw lifts and holds you. Every druggist sells it or can obtain it for you. Price $1 per large bottle. Paw-Paw Laxative Pills, 25c. a bottle.
